LONDON, AUGUST 10.

THE brave General Weiſſam, who was killed in the late action near Silistria, had deſcended from his horſe, in order to lead his men up on foot againſt the Turks, who defended their entrenchments with great obſtinacy; but juſt as the Ruſſians were getting poſſeſſion of them, he had the Misfortune to be killed by a cannon ſhot, and thus died, as it were in the arms of victory, greatly regretted by all the ſoldiery, to whom he was a common father.

This year and the laſt have produced events moſt fatal to the cauſe of Liberty in almoſt every part of Europe. Poland has been partitioned among three great powers, who pretended to be friends and mediators, and proved in the end to be ſpoilers and plunderers. Though in France Liberty was reduced almoſt to the laſt gaſp, yet ſtill ſhe breathed in thoſe venerable bodies the Parliaments. Their abſolute extinction has eſtabliſhed the moſt uncontroulable Deſpotiſm. Dantzick has been robbed of her privileges, and Hamburgh is threatened with the ſame fate. The free government of Sweden was in a few days changed to abſolute monarchy, though the young Machiavel who brought it about ſwore moſt ſolemnly he had no ſuch intention. Should the Ruſſians make a conqueſt of the Turkiſh empire, the three combined powers will be able to hold out chains to the reſt of Europe.

It is computed that the King of Pruſſia, in the year 1771, carried off from the fertile province of Great Poland and the adjoining diſtricts, twelve thouſand families, who were ſent with their effects to the barren ſands and bleak wilds of his hereditary dominions.

EDINBURGH, Auguſt 6. We are informed that no fewer than ten veſſels have either already ſailed or are engaged to ſail this ſeaſon with emigrants for America, from Sky, the Long-Iſland, Glengary, Sutherland, Roſs-ſhire, &c.

LONDON, AUGUST 12.

We hear a ſcheme is on foot for every province in North America to furniſh a ſufficient number of guard ſhips for the defence of the colonies, and to be manned and victualled at their ſeparate expence.

The Republic of Holland took its riſe from accident; and it may be ſaid, with propriety, that accidents not very uſual preſerve its very exiſtence as an independent ſtate.

A late unpopular Nobleman, during his luckleſs adminiſtration, inculcated a deal of pedantry and affectation concerning the nature of kingſhip. He had not diſcernment enough to ſee that the greateſt and beſt of our Princes not only obſerved the Laws, but made the ſenſe of the nation, in ſome meaſure, a Law to them.

When the diſturbances of the theatre at Rome, in the days of Auguſtus, cauſed ſeveral tumults, the Emperor interpoſed, and pronounced the ſentence of baniſhment on a very great actor, for whoſe ſake theſe diſturbances were made. He obſerved, at the ſame time, that the ſtage had a ſtrong tendency to diſturb as well as to amuſe the people. The actor ſaid, with great ſpirit, 'Tis for your intereſt Cæſar, they ſhould be amuſed any way.

AUGUST 14.

It is ſaid that the reaſon why Great-Britain has all along declared for a neutrality in the affairs of Poland was, that ſhe was cautious in expreſſing her real ſentiments upon this affair till it was known what France was to do. It is apparent now, that France is determined to be no longer a quiet looker-on; and in this caſe, it is impoſſible for the Britiſh Miniſtry, with all their timidity and caution, to keep themſelves out of the ſcrape.

It is almoſt certain now that a union will not take place between England and Ireland during the life of that enemy to arbitrary power, the Duke of Leinſter.

For ſome years there has not been ſo hot a day as yeſterday. The thermometer was at the eighty-eighth degree, which is exactly twelve degrees hotter than Monday laſt; and it is generally agreed, that 112 is the degree of boiling hot, we may therefore naturally conclude, that we were yeſterday par-boiled.

AUGUST 16.

The true particulars of the action at Siliſtria, between the Ruſſians and Turks, of which ſo many accounts have been publiſhed, do not appear to be yet aſcertained. By the moſt recent accounts, the advantage of the day is given to the Turks, and not to the Ruſſians, as has been the caſe hitherto.

It is ſaid Sir George Macartney will ſet out for Ireland the beginning of next week, to tranſact ſome political buſineſs of importance relative to the finances of that kingdom.

The whole of the pecuniary ſupplies now in a train of raiſing for the wants of a neighbouring nation, being found to be barely ſufficient for carrying on the retinue of affairs there, the late talk of eſtabliſhing a new order, to be called "The order of St. Patrick," is again revived with confidence, as the moſt effectual means of ſecuring a majority in Parliament.

AUGUST 17.

We are told that 1,380,600 l. were iſſued for ſecret ſervices during the laſt ten years of Sir Robert Walpole's adminiſtration. If Lord North would oblige us with the ſum total of the money iſſued for ſecret ſervice during his adminiſtration, it would be a means of ſolving thoſe difficulties that ariſe from our not knowing how government appropriates the large ſums of money that are annually raiſed.

Since the eſtabliſhment of government ſecurities, and the conſequent increaſe of ſtockjobbing, our whole ſyſtem of rule has been quite altered; the power of the Crown has been quite enlarged, and long ſtrides made to deſpotiſm. People ſubmit to every impoſition of a Miniſter, who has their Fortunes in his hands: they are afraid to reſiſt an action of power, though ever ſo oppreſſive, leſt they ſhould leſſen the ſtrength of their own ſecurities in the public funds.

It is poſſible, notwithſtanding that in a very ſhort time the quantity of ready ſpecie will be greatly reduced, and the circulation of forty ſhilling and five pound notes to remedy that inconvenience be introduced; this will render us ſtill more dependent upon government, and promote the plan of ſubmiſſion to power, which was projected about thirteen years ago, and has been daily carrying into execution ever ſince.

Admiral Spry, we hear, is to be appointed to the command of the ſquadron in the Eaſt-Indies, in the room of the late Sir Robert Harland, with the title of Admiral in chief, in the Eaſt-Indies.

According to credible advices, Europe will ſoon have a crowned head more. The Part of Poland poſſeſſed by the Auſtrians will form a kingdom, which is to be given as a dowry to an Auſtrian Princeſs, who is to be married to Prince Henry of Pruſſia, who is to be inveſted with the dignity of a crown, and in caſe he ſhould die without iſſue, his kingdom is to be incorporated in Pruſſia.

AUGUST 18.

Commiſſions, it is ſaid, are preparing to paſs the great ſeal for conſtituting and appointing John Robinſon, Eſq; Captain General and Governor in chief of Turks-Iſland, or Sal Tortuga, in the Weſt-Indies; George Mercer, Eſq; Governor of Pittſilvania, the new province on the Ohio; and Thomas Pownall, Eſq; member of Parliament for Tregony in Cornwall, to be Governor General of New-England.

We hear it is in agitation, and by ſome thought neceſſary, that a greater number of lawyers ſhould have ſeats in the Upper Aſſembly, for which purpoſe it is ſaid ſeveral creations will take place before the next ſeſſion. It has always been looked on in a different light in the Lower Aſſembly.

AUGUST 19.

We are credibly informed that the meaſures ſo often propoſed for keeping a formidable naval force in the Mediterranean is now adopted, and ſeveral of the men of war that are now ſitting out at the different dock-yards are deſtined for that purpoſe.

William Dunbar, Eſq; is appointed town Major of Quebec.

A number of families are now preparing to ſet off for Weſt-Florida, in order to ſettle on that part granted to Lord Dartmouth.

A correſpondent ſays, that the Miniſterial tools exult, and give out, that now the people have diſcovered the roguery of the patriots, they will ſee that freedom and public Liberty is only a name.

Many Perſons who have long been ſuſpected of diminiſhing the coin of this nation, have within theſe few days agreed for their paſſage to America, the late act, with their own excellent principles, having cut them out of every means of ſubſiſtence.

They write from Portſmouth, that on Monday night orders came down there for four men of war to be got ready for ſea as ſoon as poſſible, to do which the men were ordered to work double tides.

The Seaford is commiſſioned, and the command given to Capt. Stair Douglas, who will carry Sir Baſil Keith to Jamaica.

Accounts from the north of Europe complain of the exceſſive heat of the weather, which they have experienced in a degree never known before in thoſe parts in the memory of man. One letter adds, that it had infected the Ruſſian ſquadron, lying at anchor off Gothland, with ſome dangerous diſeaſes.

AUGUST 20.

They write from Rome, that the affairs of the Holy See are ſtrangely perplexed. The Courts of Spain and Portugal have recalled their Miniſters, and all places in the church are diſpoſed of by their reſpective Monarchs, without any regard to the Pope's ſupremacy, whoſe power, in a few years more, will, in all probability, be entirely reduced.

No ſubject of the King of Pruſſia, not even Nobility, are now permitted to leave the kingdom, without his Majeſty's leave.

A letter from Berlin, dated Auguſt 7, ſays, "By the motions that have been obſerved amongſt our troops at different times within theſe laſt eighteen months, and by the warlike preparations which have been carried on through all his Pruſſian Majeſty's dominions during that time, it ſeems paſt all doubt, that peace will not continue long. All the new troops are ordered into different fortifications, and the old ones have received orders to march towards the Poliſh territories. Magazines are forming in ſuch abundance, that a war of ten years continuance would not conſume them; and within this fortnight orders have been given for altering all the ſoldiers muſkets to enable them to fire more expeditiouſly, and that their ſhot may do execution at a greater diſtance."

AUGUST 22.

The conduct of the Boſtonians in their diſpute with Governor Hutchinſon has given offence at St. James's, and has occaſioned ſome very rigid orders to be diſpatched from hence.

The diſtreſs occaſioned in Ireland by the gold coin act is inconceivable. The linen manufactures were before languiſhing through a ſcarcity of money, and this act ſeems to have given them the laſt blow. The people are ſo incenſed, that government ſecurity has no credit among them. Some of the ſtate buſineſs was actually at a ſtand for ſome weeks for want of money, and the Lord Lieutenant was at length forced into the deſperate meaſure of raiſing a few thouſands on his own private fortune. A circumſtance ſo diſgraceful to the Britiſh government is not recorded in hiſtory.

An expreſs advice was ſent here from Vienna, that the Court of France had diſgraced and inſulted that of England by her intrigues againſt her at the Porte, and that the Britiſh Ambaſſador there wanted ſenſe to require redreſs. It is fact, however, that our Miniſtry have reſolved—to take no notice of theſe things.

It is ſaid that a certain courtier told Mr. Wilkes the other day, that the Miniſtry wiſhed him ſucceſs at the next election for Mayor, as it would ruin his popularity. Tell your friends, replies Mr. Wilkes, I would have them clench the buſineſs by reſtoring me to my ſeat in Parliament; and whatever may be the conſequence to me, it will be the only chance they can ever have of becoming popular themſelves.

In exchange for Courland the Duke Biron is to hold Corſica as a fief dependant on France.

It may be depended on, that neither the coin act, nor the Eaſt-India regulating bill will undergo any alteration this winter.

AUGUST 23.

By ſome advices lately received from our Ambaſſador at Peterſburg, it ſeems that the Ruſſians expect to poſſeſs themſelves of Conſtantinople by Chriſtmas. There ſeems, however, little proſpect of this at preſent, but things that ſeem impoſſible to us may to them ſeem very attainable.

A long ſtruggle, during the whole courſe of the winter, being indirectly made againſt Lord North by the Bloomſbury party (with Lord Gower, who wants to be firſt Lord of the Treaſury, at their head) to no purpoſe, a direct application was made a few days ago to a great Perſonage, whoſe reply was, "I have the greateſt good wiſhes for my Lord Gower, but the experience I have had of my Lord North's ſervices, leaves me under no neceſſity of making a new trial."

It is ſaid, that at the requeſt of a certain exculpated Nabob (Lord Clive) a great law officer (Counſellor Wedderburne) will ſhortly be dignified with the title of Baronet.

An addition of one thouſand pounds per annum, it is ſaid, is to be made to the ſalary of Sir Baſil Keith, the new appointed Governor of Jamaica.

We are informed that Mr. Hume is going to continue his hiſtory of England to the preſent period; and we are alſo convinced that Mrs. Macaulay will.

WARSAW, Auguſt 2. Within theſe laſt twelve days we have had no accounts from the Ruſſian army, which, we ſuppoſe, has occaſioned the report of the Ruſſians by the Turks; but we are aſſured, from good authority, that there is not the leaſt ground for this report, nor for that other report of the Ruſſians having paſſed the Danube.

LONDON, AUGUST 25.

It is expected that, in conſequence of the laconic refuſal given by a Great Perſonage to Lord Gower, his Lordſhip will reſign.

We are informed that, in conſequence of the Marquis of Kinſale's viſit here, a coalition is likely to take place in a ſiſter kingdom, and that the preſent Lord Lieutenant will be continued in his preſent important office.

AUGUST 26.

The frequency of couriers paſſing to and from the different Courts of Europe, with the many conferences and cabinet councils held, give reaſon to think ſomething extraordinary on the carpet.

The Governors of Jamaica, Gibraltar, and Minorca, have received orders to repair to their reſpective governments within a month from this date.

The Spaniards are very buſy at Ferrol and Carthagena, in equipping a large fleet, and great encouragement is given to ſailors who enter. Proclamations are iſſued.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 2.

LAST Tuesday sailed for England, His Majesty's Frigate Lizard, commanded by Charles Inglis, Esq;

And the same day sailed with His Majesty's Mails for Jamaica and Pensacola, the Diligence Brigantine Packet-Boat, commanded by Captain Arthur Clark; in which went Passenger, Mr. William Oliphant.

The same Day returned from the Northern Colonies (in the Brigt. Prince of Wales, Capt. Mason) the Revd. Mr. Tennent, Pastor of the New-England Meeting-House here, Mrs. Lesesne, Daniel Huger, Esq; Robert Raper, Esq; Naval Officer for this Port, Mr. Christoper Peters, Mr. John Benfield, Mr. John Watson, Samuel Wragg, Esq; of George-Town, and others.

The same Day died, in the Prime of Life, Mr. John Rantowle, Taylor—a literate, sensible, honest, and industrious man, and a valuable Member of the Community. He may well be said to have lived respected, and died lamented, when his Corpse was attended to the Grave the next Day, by a greater Number of People of all Ranks, than are generally seen at the Interment of Persons of the greatest Fortune and highest Distinction—and there were far more wet Eyes. The Artillery Company, who respectfully attended his Funeral, has sustained a particular Loss in his Death; and the Society of Free and Accepted Masons no less regret it,—indeed who, that knew him, does not?

On Thursday last died, in St. Andrew's Parish, the ingenious Mr. Thomas Mellichamp, who some Years ago discovered an entire new Method of producing Flora Indico.

Jacob Ramos, convicted, at the last Assizes, of receiving stolen Goods, was publicly whipped last Friday.

The same Day arrived in Capt. Chadwick's Vessel, from New-York, Mr. Harrison, Joshua Smith, Esq; Mrs. Smith, and Master Torrans.

On Saturday last arrived the St. George, Capt. Muir, from London: In which came Passengers, Maurice Simons, Esq; and Doctor Wyatt, of this town, a Mr. Knott, a Mr. Hunter, and some others.

By a Scooner from the Bay of Honduras, arrived Yesterday, out 72 Days, and bound for Jamaica, we learn, that the Insurrection there had been entirely quelled, with the Loss of only seven Lives.

One of our Pilots Yesterday, spoke a Snow passing this Bar, from Barbados, bound for Georgia, but cannot recollect the Master's Name.

CONTINUE to carry on the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in its several Branches, and beg Leave to assure their Friends, that they will continue to exert their utmost Endeavours for their Interest, and at the same Time to acquaint them, as they never had, they still have no Objection to receive Goods at Capt. GADSDEN'S or any other Wharf in Town, but will be particularly obliged to those who will be pleased to order their Goods to GIBBES'S Wharf on South-Bay, where they may be assured that proper Care will be taken thereof, there being commodious and safe Stores, and an excellent Yard for the Reception of Naval Stores and Lumber.

The Safety of that River, and the Advantage of avoiding the Danger and Inconveniency of Boats going round White Point, and the Risk of getting foul of the Shipping in Cooper-River, besides the saving at least a Tide in discharging their Load, which they may do at low Water, will, he hopes, sufficiently recommend it, at least to those Persons whose Boats must come down that River; and he flatters himself the Merchants and Factors will have no Objection to receiving Rice thereat; particularly as the same shall be shipped Free of the Expence of Porterage the first Year.

He purposes to fix Scales at the Head of his Wharf for the more convenient weighing such Rice as may be sold on landing.

MR. DE ST. PIERRE, having met with repeated and great Disappointments, in his Attempt to introduce the MAKING of WINES at New-Bourdeaux, in the Back Parts of this Province, so as to render the same a considerable Branch of its Trade, merely by a Failure of that Support which he had Reason to expect, from some of the Persons on whom he most relied, to advance the necessary Sums, to carry him through, and complete, this important Undertaking.

Having, nevertheless, under that, and many other Discouragements and Difficulties, stedfastly persevered in his zealous Endeavours to accomplish this great End, so far as, that he has introduced large Quantities of the best FOREIGN VINES that could be procured, as well from Europe as from other Places, and now hath four Acres, or thereabouts, of two Years Growth, in the highest Perfection, of which an excellent Wine may be next Year made, of a Quality between the Burgundy and Claret.

But, finding himself in no Condition to proceed, to attain this desirable Object (although there is no Abatement of his Zeal and Attention) for Want of Cellars, Presses, and four able young Negroes, or rather of the Means to procure them; he finds himself reduced to the unhappy Necessity of soliciting the Assistance of Gentlemen of Public Spirit, and who wish to see such an Undertaking succeed, by a Subscription Loan of so small a Sum as £. 2000 Currency, to be laid out in the following Manner, viz.—About £. 1600l. in the Purchase of four Slaves, to be severally instructed and employed in the proper Management of the Wines, so as to enlarge the Vineyard;—without whose Assistance, that of four Acres, abovementioned, cannot be extended. The remaining £. 400 to be put into Mr. DE. ST. PIERRE's Hands, to provide himself with Presses, and to build a Cellar, absolutely necessary for preserving the Wine, which will be quite different in its Nature from that made nearer the Topick, as at Madera and the Canaries.

If there should be found Gentlemen who will advance the Sum now wanted, which he flatters himself there will, he proposes that the Money so subscribed, shall be paid into the Hands of a Committee chosen from among the Subscribers, who shall lay out and take the proper Measures, to secure the same to the said Subscribers.

Besides the Vineyard under his immediate Care, there are already several other flourishing Vineyards at New-Bourdeaux, under experienced Vignerons; and he expects to receive 50 or 60,000 Plants more, from Europe, this Year; for the Management of which particularly, he shall want the Negroes.

To conclude, upon the Reception this PROPOSAL meets with, greatly depends, whether this shall immediately become a WINE COUNTRY, or not.

 Subscription-Papers are lodged in the Hands of Mr. JOHN CORAM, Merchant, and at Mr. WELLS, Mr. CROUCH, and T. POWELL & Company's Printing-Offices, in Charles-Town;—where Gentlemen, disposed to assist Mr. DE ST. PIERRE, will please to give in their Names, and the Sums they are willing to advance, as soon as possible, it being of the utmost Consequence to him, that the Application of the Subscription-Money be made by the 1st Day of December next.—In which Case, his Vineyard may be enlarged next Year from Four to near Fifty Acres.
